
■ MITTEILUNGEN DER DGG /
COMMUNICATIONS OF THE DGG

„Preussentag“ beim Österreichischen
Geriatric-Kongress in Bad Hofgastein
„Prussian day“ at the Austrian Congress of Geriatrics in Bad Hofgastein 56

■ KONGRESSKALENDER /
CONGRESS CALENDER 57

■ IMPRESSUM 59

■ WISSENSCHAFTLICHER BEIRAT /
EDITORIAL BOARD 50

■ HINWEISE FÜR AUTOREN /
AUTHORS' GUIDELINES 4

✍️ AUTHORS GUIDELINES ✍️

Please address manuscripts of original papers, review articles, case reports and letters in the field of geriatrics in German or English to:

Prof. Dr. med. Erich Lang
Editor-in-Chief
EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF GERIATRICS
Carl-Korth-Institut, Rathbergerstr. 10
D-91054 Erlangen

The papers must comply with the requirements on the publication of modern scientific information, and must not have been published or submitted for publication elsewhere.

Original papers should be no longer than 8 to 10 manuscript pages, review articles about current scientific understanding in a particular field of geriatrics should not be longer than 10 to 12 manuscript pages, including illustrations and bibliography.

Letters as interim scientific communications (2 to 3 manuscript pages, 2 tables or figures) will be given priority.

Manuscripts

Manuscripts should be submitted on pages written on one side only (two columns, 3 cm left margin, 30 lines per page). For texts in German the new German orthography is binding. Use „Duden: Medizinische Fachausdrücke“ for spelling.

The title and key words in German and English must follow the summary.

All manuscripts must be submitted on disk or by e-mail (ELang@t-online.de). Exceptions will only be made in justifiable cases. 3.5" disks (MS-Dos or Mac) will be accepted; please state the operating system, format and name of the word-processing program on the disk. Please enclose a valid print-out with the disk. The following word processors are accepted:

- Macintosh: Mac Write, Microsoft Word, RTF
- PC: MS-Word for Windows, Windows-Write, RTF

Manuscripts written with other programs must be saved in ASCII format.

Enclose illustrations and tables separately with the manuscript. They must be of reproducible quality, numbered, and marked with the name of the author. Please keep the number to a necessary minimum. Avoid repeating data in figures and tables. Summarise the legends with the numbers of the figures on a separate page.

The complete postal address of the author and co-authors (with name written in full and complete titles) must be given at the end of the manuscript. If the co-authors are subordinate to the author, the responsible head of the institution / institute / department must be given in parentheses.

The publisher will ultimately decide upon acceptance after evaluation by reviewers. Upon acceptance, the publisher shall acquire the exclusive rights of publication, translation into foreign languages and reproduction for the statutory copyright period.

In the case of books the bibliography must state; name and initials of the forenames of all authors or of the publisher(s), title, publisher, where published, and year of publication.

Where journals are quoted, the bibliography must state the name and initials of the forenames of all authors, name of the journal (abbreviated according to World Medical Periodicals), volume number, year of publication (in parentheses) and page numbers, including the first and last pages.

Examples:

1. Turell R (Ed): Diseases of the Colon and Rectum. W. B. Saunders Co., Philadelphia, 1959.
2. Dromerick A, Reding M: Medical and neurological complications during inpatient stroke rehabilitation, Stroke, 25 (1994) 258-361.

Corrections

The papers will be composed in real-time paging. Major corrections such as deletions or additions that alter the volume are no longer possible during composition.