

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Editorial 2 Mission statement 4 Jahreskongress der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Senologie im September 2004 in Freiburg – Optimierung der Betreuung der Brustkrebspatientin durch Interdisziplinarität 5 Für Sie gelesen 5 Onkologie – Brustkrebs: Ultraschall sagt Tumorgroße am besten voraus 5 Epidemiologie – Schwangerschaftsabbruch und Brustkrebs – kein Zusammenhang 17 Wissenschaftliche Arbeiten 17 Die MRM (Magnetresonanz-Mammographie) als ergänzende Methode bei der Abklärung suspekter Mammaläsionen: Rechtfertigt der Informationsgewinn die Anzahl der benignen offenen Biopsien?
B. Lazić, N. Fersis, K. C. Siegmann, K. Sotlar, D. Wallwiener, U. Krainick-Strobel 22 Verschreibungsverhalten von Aromatasehemmern
Erste Ergebnisse einer Umfrage an die Mitglieder der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Senologie
D. Lüfter, P. Henschke, K. Possinger 27 Neues aus der Forschung 27 Metastasiertes Mammakarzinom – Die Therapie individuell auf die Patientin abstimmen 28 Mammakarzinom – Zoledronat – hochaktiv bei Knochenmetastasen 29 Mammakarzinom – MA.17-Daten zur erweiterten adjuvanten Therapie mit Letrozol 31 Internationales Expertentreffen – Einsatz der Primärsystemischen Therapie (PST) des operablen Mammakarzinoms | 6 Mammakarzinom – Langzeitüberleben bei nodal-negativem Brustkrebs ohne adjuvante Therapie 7 Aktuell diskutiert 7 Hormonsubstitution nach Brustkrebs 10 Stellungnahme zum Abbruch der Studie der HABITS 11 Krebskongress 2004 in Berlin – Patientenkompetenz und Versorgungsqualität bei Brustkrebs 13 Konsensuskonferenz Gravenbruch 2004 – Konsensuskonferenz zur Diagnostik und Therapie von Mammakarzinomen Scientific articles 17 Breast MRI (Magnetic Resonance Imaging) as a Complementary Method in the Diagnosis of Suspicious Breast Lesions: Does the Benefit Justify the Number of Benign Surgical Biopsies?
B. Lazić, N. Fersis, K. C. Siegmann, K. Sotlar, D. Wallwiener, U. Krainick-Strobel 22 Preception – conduct of Aromatase – inhibitors
First results of an inquiry by members of the DGS
D. Lüfter, P. Henschke, K. Possinger 33 Konsensusempfehlungen zur Hormontherapie im Klimakterium und in der Postmenopause 37 Memorandum zur Versorgungsforschung in Deutschland 40 Kurzfassung der Stufe-3-Leitlinie „Brustkrebs-Früherkennung in Deutschland“ 51 Leitlinie Fraueninformation – Qualifizierte Informationen für Frauen |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|