

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

D. Y. Ho, J. D. Lee, F. Rosso, J. G. Montoya.
Treating disseminated fusariosis: amphotericin B, voriconazole or both? 227

P. Vaideeswar, S. P. Pandit. Primary zygomycosis of the pericardium in an immunocompetent host 232

S. Akcaglar, E. Sevgican, H. Akalin, B. Ener, O. Tore. Two cases of cryptococcal meningitis in immunocompromised patients not infected with HIV 235

J. Evison, B. Blaser, E. Stauffer, K. Mühlemann. Parapharyngeal abscess by Aspergillus flavus in a neutropenic patient with myelogenous leukaemia 239

R. Ozaras, M. Yemisen, B. Mete, A. Mert, R. Ozturk, F. Tabak. Acrocyanosis developed with amphotericin B deoxycholate but not with amphotericin B lipid complex 242

Announcements 243

Congress Calendar 246

---

CAPTION OF THE COVER ILLUSTRATION. Skin biopsy specimen of the right forearm lesion showing septated branching hyphae (GMS stain).

See D.Y. Ho et al, Treating disseminated fusariosis: amphotericin B, voriconazole or both? pp. 227–231 in this issue.

---