The screenshot shows the homepage of the International Journal of Computerized Dentistry. The browser window title is "International Journal of Computerized Dentistry - Mozilla Firefox". The address bar shows "http://journals.quintessenz.de". The website header includes navigation links: "Campus Online", "Online Journals", "q.tv praxis", "Illumine Anatomy", "Poster Journal", "QuiS", "Multimedia", and "Quintessenz.de". The ISSN number "ISSN 1463-4201" is also visible. The main content area features a "Home" section with the journal title "International Journal of Computerized Dentistry" and the logo "Computerized DENTISTRY". Below the title, it lists the ISSN, the editorial board (Prof. Dr. Christoph Benz, Dr. Olaf Schenk, Anke Schiemann), and the latest issue information ("Ausgabe 1/2009", quarterly). A paragraph describes the journal's focus on computerized dentistry and its multilingual nature. A login section is present on the left side of the page. The footer contains the copyright notice "© 2009 Quintessenz Publishing Group" and the word "Fertig".
