

CONTENTS

J. R. Vallentyne & R. A. Vollenweider Memorial Issue

| | |
|---|-----|
| Editorial | 115 |
| M. Munawar | |
| Preface | 119 |
| C. K. Minns | |
| Foreword | 121 |
| J. Leach and E. Mills | |
| Anecdotal articles: John R. Vallentyne | |
| Dr. John R. Vallentyne (1926–2007) | 123 |
| Aquatic Ecosystem Health and Management Society | |
| The non-scientific contributions of Jack Vallentyne | 125 |
| J. Vallentyne (Canada) | |
| My father, the environmentalist | 127 |
| P. Vallentyne (United States) | |
| Personal ramblings about John Reuben Way Vallentyne | 129 |
| G. J. Brunskill (Australia) | |
| Lessons for a young naturalist, or, how Jack Vallentyne launched my career | 134 |
| S. D. Ludlam (United States) | |
| John R. (Jack) Vallentyne: enduring lessons in leadership | 138 |
| A. L. Hamilton (Canada) | |

(Continued on inside back cover)

| | |
|--|-----|
| Vallentyne legacy J. P. Bruce (Canada) | 145 |
| Jack Vallentyne's ecosystemic legacy J. H. Hartig (United States) | 147 |
| Jack Vallentyne, the Atlas of ecosystems J. Leach (Canada) | 149 |
| Close encounters with the best kind: Jack Vallentyne (a.k.a. Johnny Biosphere and Professor Trout) M. Munawar (Canada) | 152 |
| My memories of Jack Vallentyne C. R. Goldman (United States) | 155 |
| A poem/lyrics by Johnny Biosphere: These Lakes Are Your Lakes C. Fetterolf (United States) | 157 |
| Johnny Biosphere: limnologist and ecological advocate L. H. McCarthy (Canada) | 159 |
| Johnny Biosphere, man of delight G. Daly (Canada) | 161 |
| Reminiscences about Jack Vallentyne's personal qualities and his contributions to science, human society, and Earth's great community of living things T. A. Jackson (Canada) | 162 |
| Serendipitous intersections with Jack Vallentyne S. H. Hurlbert (United States) | 165 |
| Anecdotal articles: Richard A. Vollenweider | |
| Dr. Richard A. Vollenweider (1922–2007) Aquatic Ecosystem Health and Management Society | 170 |
| Richard Vollenweider: some reminiscences from the 1950s R. Schröder (Germany) | 172 |
| Richard A. Vollenweider: contribution to our knowledge of Italian lakes R. Mosello, R. de Bernadi and O. Ravera (Italy) | 174 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| From Switzerland to Canada: a diary of two Swiss Postdoctoral Fellows and Richard A. Vollenweider R. Gächter and P. Stadelmann (Switzerland) | 179 |
| Richard Vollenweider remembered A. Nauwerck (Austria) | 182 |
| Dr. Richard Vollenweider and the Great Lakes J. P. Bruce (Canada) | 186 |
| Richard Vollenweider: an original thinker and one of his last ideas, moving correlations G. Harris (England) | 188 |
| Exploring the Great Lakes with Dr. God: R. A. Vollenweider M. Munawar (Canada) | 191 |
| Dr. R. A. Vollenweider: the man and his science A. El-Shaarawi (Canada) | 194 |
| Richard A. Vollenweider in the 1980s at the Canada Centre for Inland Waters L. L. Janus (United States) | 196 |
| Scientific articles | |
| Contribution of Richard A. Vollenweider toward understanding eutrophication of the coastal Adriatic Sea A. Rinaldi and F. Giovanardi (Italy) | 200 |
| The application of Vollenweider's eutrophication models for assessing ecosystem health: Hamilton Harbour (Lake Ontario) example M. Munawar and M. Fitzpatrick (Canada) | 204 |
| Cutting through complexity with Vollenweider's razor E. F. Lowe and J. S. Steward (United States) | 209 |
| Limnological responses to changes in the thermal mixing regime in Lake Biwa associated with global warming M. Sakamoto (Japan) | 214 |
| Bloom development and phytoplankton succession in Lake Winnipeg: a comparison of historical records with recent data H. J. Kling, S. B. Watson, G. K. McCullough and M. P. Stainton (Canada) | 219 |
| Afterword | |
| Complex initiatives by Jack Vallentyne and Richard Vollenweider within an ecosystem approach to the Great Laurentian Basin H. A. Regier (Canada) | 225 |