

World Food Regulation Review

AROUND THE WORLD

AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Proposal to Clarify Carbon Monoxide Provisions in Code 3

AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Calls for Submissions on New Ingredient for Infant Formula/Young Children Products 3

CANADA: CFIA Provides Industry with Better Access to Expert Advice 3

CANADA: Organic Equivalency Further Supports Canadian Exports 4

EUROPEAN UNION: Caramel Colours: Exposure Lower Than Estimated 4

EUROPEAN UNION: Sea Transport of Edible Fats and Oils 5

EUROPEAN UNION: Pesticides and Aquatic Organisms 5

FINLAND: Mycoplasma bovis Infection Found in Finnish Calves. 6

FINLAND: Killing and Slaughter of Animals Must be Planned in More Detail. 6

GERMANY: REACH: Requirements for the Identification of Substances of Very High Concern 7

HONG KONG: Contaminated Cooking Oil Not “Gutter Oil” 7

HONG KONG: Imports of Poultry Products from Schleswig-Holstein Suspended 8

IRELAND: New Rules Will Help Consumers Make More Informed Choices 8

IRELAND: UAE Market Opened to Irish Sheepmeat 9

NETHERLANDS: Regulation of Nanomaterials “Needs More Than Definition Alone” 10

RUSSIA: Supply of Poultry Meat to EU 10

RUSSIA: USA “Must Clean up Their Meat” or Sell it Elsewhere 11

UNITED KINGDOM: Risk and Decision Report Welcomed 11

UNITED KINGDOM: FSA Consultation on Radioactivity Monitoring 12

UNITED KINGDOM: USDA Issues Final Rule for Animal Disease Traceability 12

UNITED KINGDOM: National Advisory Committee on Meat and Poultry Inspection to Host Public Meeting 13

SPECIAL REPORT

Update on the Regulation of Food-Contact Materials in China 14

SPECIAL REPORT

PET Recycling: an EFSA Opinion 16

SPECIAL REPORT

Does Home Cooking Have an Effect on Phthalate Levels in Food? 18

INTERNATIONAL

New Zealand and US in Food Safety Systems Recognition Arrangement / China, US and Canada in Broad Consensus ... / ... and Chief Inspector Xiang Meets FDA’s Taylor 20

International Food Safety News

Editorial 21

News. 22

Pot Pourri 31

Editorial (Cont’d) 32