

Contents

J. Forrest and K. Dunn	1	Cultural diversity, racialisation and the experience of racism in rural Australia: the South Australian case
A. Findlay and D. McCollum	10	Recruitment and employment regimes: Migrant labour channels in the UK's rural agribusiness sector, from accession to recession
C. O'Faircheallaigh	20	Extractive industries and Indigenous peoples: A changing dynamic?
K. Zimmerbauer and A. Paasi	31	When old and new regionalism collide: Deinstitutionalization of regions and resistance identity in municipality amalgamations
M. Farstad and J.F. Rye	41	Second home owners, locals and their perspectives on rural development
A.M. Lerner, H. Eakin and S. Sweeney	52	Understanding peri-urban maize production through an examination of household livelihoods in the Toluca Metropolitan Area, Mexico
L. Cheshire, C. Meurk and M. Woods	64	Decoupling farm, farming and place: Recombinant attachments of globally engaged family farmers
G. Waitt and C. Gibson	75	The Spiral Gallery: Non-market creativity and belonging in an Australian country town
S. Fast	86	A Habermasian analysis of local renewable energy deliberations
J.J. Micheline	99	Small farmers and social capital in development projects: Lessons from failures in Argentina's rural periphery
M. Tyler and P. Fairbrother	110	Bushfires are "men's business": The importance of gender and rural hegemonic masculinity
R. Hackett	120	From government to governance? Forest certification and crisis displacement in Ontario, Canada