

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR HORTICULTURAL SCIENCE

VOL. 139, NO. 1

CONTENTS

JANUARY 2014

Developmental Physiology

- 3 Mature Sweet Cherries Have Low Turgor
Moritz Knoche, Eckhard Grimm, and Henrik Jürgen Schlegel
- 13 The Architectural Complexity of Crown Bud Clusters in Gentian: Anatomy, Ontogeny, and Origin
Uttara C. Samarakoon, Keith A. Funnell, David J. Woolley, Barbara A. Ambrose, and Ed R. Morgan

Genetics and Breeding

- 22 Short-read DNA Sequencing Yields Microsatellite Markers for Rheum
Barbara S. Gilmore, Nahla V. Bassil, Danny L. Barney, Brian J. Knaus, and Kim E. Hummer
- 30 Highly Fertile Intersectional Blueberry Hybrids of Vaccinium
padifolium Section Hemimyrtillus and V. corymbosum Section Cyanococcus
Mark K. Ehlenfeldt and James J. Polashock
- 39 Karyotype Analysis of Wild Rosa Species in Xinjiang, Northwestern China
Chao Yu, Le Luo, Hui-tang Pan, Yun-ji Sui, Run-hua Guo, Jin-yao Wang, and Qi-xiang Zhang

- 48 Flowering Time in Watermelon Is Associated with a Major Quantitative Trait Locus on Chromosome 3
Cecilia E. McGregor, Vickie Waters, Tripti Vashisth, and Hussein Abdel-Haleem

Molecular Biology–Biotechnology

- 54 Molecular Cloning and Characterization of the HOS1 Gene from ‘Muscat Hamburg’ Grapevine Jitao Li, Nian Wang, Lina Wang, Haiping Xin, and Shaohua Li
- 63 Transcript Abundance of Phytoene Synthase 1 and Phytoene
Synthase 2 Is Associated with Natural Variation of Storage Root Carotenoid Pigmentation in Carrot
Megan J. Bowman, David K. Willis, and Philipp W. Simon

Soil–Plant–Water Relations

- 69 Nitrogen Source for Inflorescence Development in Phalaenopsis: I. Relative Significance of Stored and Newly Absorbed Nitrogen
Hadi Susilo, Ying-Chun Peng, and Yao-Chien Alex Chang
- 76 Nitrogen Source for Inflorescence Development in Phalaenopsis:
II. Effect of Reduced Fertilizer Level on Stored Nitrogen Use
Hadi Susilo and Yao-Chien Alex Chang
