

FOOD REGULATION

REVIEW

Vol. 27, Number 4

September 2017

CONTENTS

World Food Regulation Review

AROUND THE WORLD

AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Call for Submissions on GM Canola Line Application . . . . .	3
AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Call for Submissions on a New Processing Aid. . . . .	3
AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND: Bean Paste Recalled Due to Undeclared Peanut – More Recalls Possible . . . . .	3
BELGIUM: AFSCA Refutes “Cake Ban” Claim . . . . .	4
BELGIUM: Fipronil and Processed Egg Products: State of Play 20 September . . . . .	4
CANADA: Ban on Partially Hydrogenated Oils (PHOs). . . . .	5
CANADA: CanadaGAP Congratulated for Food Safety Achievements . . . . .	6
CANADA: Government Hosts NAFTA Roundtable with Agricultural Stakeholders . . . . .	6
CANADA: New Agricultural Market Opportunities with CETA Provisional Application in Force. . . . .	7
CANADA: Government Releases Pan-Canadian Framework on Antimicrobial Resistance . . . . .	8
EUROPEAN UNION: Public Consultation: DRVs for Sodium. . . . .	9
EUROPEAN UNION: Bee Health: Nominations Open for Stakeholder Group. . . . .	9
EUROPEAN UNION: EFSA’s Fellowship Programme: Training the Next Generation of Food Safety Risk Assessors . . . . .	9
EUROPEAN UNION: European Parliament President Visits EFSA . . . . .	10
FINLAND: Dietary Advice on Fish Consumption . . . . .	10
FINLAND: Insects Soon to Become Part of Our Diet . . . . .	11
GERMANY: Contaminants in Food: Health Risks of Natural Origin are Frequently Underestimated . . . . .	11
GERMANY: Botulism Risk Through Salted and Dried Roach . . . . .	12
IRELAND: Audit of Traceability in Food and Food Products of Animal Origin Published . . . . .	13
NETHERLANDS: Norovirus “Leading Cause” of Food-related Outbreaks . . . . .	14
NEW ZEALAND: Rule Redesign to Make it Easier for Businesses . . . . .	14
NEW ZEALAND: NZ Endorsement of Dairy Declaration of Rotterdam. . . . .	15

NEW ZEALAND: Mycoplasma bovis – Update 8 September 2017 . . . . .	15
NEW ZEALAND: Voluntary Health Star Labelling on the Rise . . . . .	16
UNITED KINGDOM: Concerns Raised Over Supermarket Chicken Supplier . . . . .	17
UNITED KINGDOM: FSA Advises Against Eating Raw Chicken Dishes . . . . .	18
UNITED KINGDOM: Changes to the Campylobacter Retail Survey . . . . .	18
UNITED KINGDOM: Food Hygiene Rating Scheme “Central to Modernisation Plans” . . . . .	19
UNITED KINGDOM: Ensuring the Safe Production of Meat . . . . .	19
UNITED KINGDOM: Summary of Discussions at FSA Board Meeting 20 September 2017 . . . . .	20
UNITED KINGDOM: FSA Publishes Local Authority Food Law Enforcement Information . . . . .	21
UNITED STATES: Statement from FDA Commissioner Scott Gottlieb on New Qualified Health Claim Advising that Early Introduction of Peanuts to Certain High-risk Infants May Reduce Risk of Peanut Allergy . . . . .	22
UNITED STATES: CDC and Texas Health Officials Warn About Illness Linked to Raw Milk from Texas Dairy. . . . .	23

FEATURE

Codex Alimentarius Committee on Food Labelling to adopt revised international standards on food labelling and may start embarking on challenging discussions on Front-Of-Pack Nutrition Labelling Guidelines and longer term works on emerging consumer preferences and needs for further international guidance or modernization of existing Codex standards By Christophe Leprêtre and Katia Merten-Lenz . . . . .	25
--	----

INTERNATIONAL

The World is Running Out of Antibiotics / EU and FAO Bring Combined Weight to Bear on Food Waste, Antimicrobial Resistance / More Investments and Surveillance Needed to Curb Misuse of Antimicrobials in Public Health and Agriculture / Codex: Focus on Strengthening Participation / FAO Calls for Broader Livestock Vaccination to Keep Lumpy Skin Disease at Bay in Eastern Europe & the Balkans. . . . .	29
--	----