

JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR HORTICULTURAL SCIENCE

VOL. 143, NO. 1

CONTENTS

JANUARY 2018

- 3 Exogenous Nitric Oxide Pretreatment Enhances Chilling Tolerance of Anthurium
Lijian Liang, Yanming Deng, Xiaobo Sun, Xinping Jia, and Jiale Su
- 14 Genome-wide Identification and Expression Pattern Analysis of Zinc-finger Homeodomain Transcription Factors in Tomato under Abiotic Stress
Jingkang Hu, Yingmei Gao, Tingting Zhao, Jingfu Li, Meini Yao, and Xiangyang Xu
- 23 Effects of Nighttime Ozone Treatment at Ambient Concentrations on Sensitive and Resistant Snap Bean Genotypes
Kirsten L. Lloyd, Donald D. Davis, Richard P. Marini, and Dennis R. Decoteau
- 34 Informativeness of Single Nucleotide Polymorphisms and Relationships among Onion Populations from Important World Production Regions
Michael J. Havey and Farhad Ghavami
- 45 Differential Responses of Amino Acids and Soluble Proteins to Heat Stress Associated with Genetic Variations in Heat Tolerance for Hard Fescue
Jinyu Wang, Bo Yuan, Yi Xu, and Bingru Huang
- 56 De Novo Transcriptome Assembly of Isatis indigotica at Reproductive Stages and Identification of Candidate Genes Associated with Flowering Pathways
Yu Bai, Ying Zhou, Xiaoqing Tang, Yu Wang, Fangquan Wang, and Jie Yang
- 67 Relationship between Phloem Fiber and Trailing Habit, and Independent Inheritance of Growth Habit and Flower Form in Periwinkle
Huan-Keng Lin, Tzu-Yao Wei, Chin-Mu Chen, and Der-Ming Yeh
- 72 Reproductive Biology in Northern Prickly Ash
David A. Munter, James J. Luby, and Neil O. Anderson
- 84 Genome-wide Identification and Expression Pattern Analysis of BRI1-EMS-suppressor Transcription Factors in Tomato under Abiotic Stresses
Yingmei Gao, Jingkang Hu, Tingting Zhao, Xiangyang Xu, Jingbin Jiang, and Jingfu Li
