

Aquatic Ecosystem Health & Management

Volume 21, Number 4

October–December

CONTENTS

Restoring Great Lakes Areas of Concern: 32 Years of Remediation and Restoration

Foreword

Debbie Stabenow, U.S. Senator, Michigan

369

Editorial

370

Preface

373

AOC Case studies

Life after delisting: The Collingwood Harbour story

G. Krantzberg and M. Rich (Canada)

378

Severn Sound Remedial Action Plan: The friendly little monster

R.K. Sherman, R. Whittam, and J. Cayley (Canada)

387

The Rouge River Area of Concern - A multi-year, multi-level successful approach to restoration of Impaired Beneficial Uses

J. Ridgway, K. Cave, A. DeMaria, J. O'Meara, and J.H. Hartig (USA)

398

Use of collaborative funding to implement the Remedial Action Plan for the St. Louis River Area of Concern, Minnesota, USA

N.T. French, T. Dekker, and J.H. Hartig (USA)

409

Strengthening Science-Policy Linkages

Eutrophication in three Canadian Areas of Concern: Phytoplankton and major nutrient interactions

M. Munawar and M. Fitzpatrick (Canada)

421

U.S. progress in remediating contaminated sediments in Great Lakes Areas of Concern	438
M.L. Tuchman, S.E. Cieniawski, and J.H. Hartig (USA)
Ecology of algal blooms in the Bay of Quinte: Composition, diversity and dynamics	447
M. Munawar, M. Fitzpatrick, H. Niblock, R. Rozon, J. Lorimer, and H. Kling (Canada)
Habitat rehabilitation in the Detroit River Area of Concern	458
J.H. Hartig, C. Sanders, R.J.H. Wyma, J.C. Boase, and E.F. Roseman (USA)
Ecosystem-based governance in AOCs
Revisiting governance principles for effective Remedial Action Plan implementation and capacity building	470
G. Krantzberg (Canada)
Symmetry and solitude: Status and lessons learned from binational Areas of Concern	478
M. Child, J. Read, J. Ridal, and M. Twiss (Canada)
Remedies for improving Great Lakes Remedial Action Plans: A Policy Delphi study	493
C. McLaughlin and G. Krantzberg (Canada)
AOC overview and synthesis
Achievements and lessons learned from the 32-year old Canada-U.S. effort to restore Impaired Beneficial Uses in Great Lakes Areas of Concern	506
J.H. Hartig, G. Krantzberg, M. Munawar, M. Doss, M. Child, R. Kalinauskas, L. Richman, and C. Blair (USA)	